

THE FURTHER AND HIGHER EDUCATION ACT 1992

THE FURTHER EDUCATION CORPORATIONS (FORMER FURTHER EDUCATION COLLEGES) (MODIFICATION OF INSTRUMENTS AND ARTICLES OF GOVERNMENT) ORDER 2012

The Secretary of State for Business, Innovation and Skills makes the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by section 22(2) and (3) of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992(a). In accordance with section 22(3)(b) of that Act, the Secretary of State has consulted the Chief Executive of Skills Funding and the further education corporations listed in the Schedule to this Order ("the colleges").

1. This Order may be cited as the Further Education Corporations (Former Further Education Colleges) (Modification of Instruments and Articles of Government) Order 2012 and comes into force on 31st March 2012.
2. The Instrument of Government set out in Schedule 1 and the Articles of Government set out in Schedule 2 shall replace the Instrument and Articles of Government for the college.
3. Accordingly, the Further Education Corporations (Former Further Education Colleges) (Replacement of Instrument and Articles of Government) Orders 2007 which had effect immediately before 31st March 2012, are revoked.

UNITED COLLEGES GROUP – INSTRUMENTS AND ARTICLES OF GOVERNMENT

SCHEDULE 1

Instrument of Government

1. Interpretation of the terms used

In this Instrument of Government:

- a) any reference to CEO shall include a person acting as CEO;
- b) “the Clerk” means the Director of Governance;
- c) “the Corporation” means any further education corporation to which this Instrument applies;
- d) “the institution” means the institutions which the Corporation is established to conduct and any institution for the time being conducted by the Corporation in exercise of its powers under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992;
- e) “this Instrument” means this Instrument of Government;
- f) “the Department for Education” means the Permanent Secretary of the Department for Education;
- g) “meeting” includes a meeting at which the members attending are present in more than one room, provided that by the use of telephone-conferencing and/or video-conferencing facilities it is possible for every person present at the meeting to communicate with each other and those attending remotely confirm they are in a secure location;
- h) “necessary skills” means skills and experience, other than professional qualifications, specified by the Corporation as appropriate for members to have;
- i) “staff member” and “student member” have the meanings given to them in clause 2;
- j) “the previous Instrument of Government” means the Instrument of Government relating to the Corporation which had effect immediately before 1st January 2008;
- k) “the Secretary of State” means the Department for Education;
- l) “staff matters” means the remuneration, conditions of service, promotion, conduct, suspension, dismissal or retirement of staff;
- m) “the students’ union” means any association of students formed to further the educational purposes of the institution and the interests of students, as students;
- n) a “variable category” means any category of members whose numbers may vary according to clauses 2 and 3.

2. Composition of the Corporation

Subject to the transitional arrangements set out in clause 4, the Corporation shall consist of:

- a) up to eighteen members who appear to the Corporation to have the necessary skills to ensure that the Corporation carries out its functions under 3 of the Articles of Government;
- b) the CEO of the institution, unless the CEO chooses not to be a member;
- c) at least one and not more than three members who are members of the institution’s staff and have a permanent contract of employment with the institution and who have been appointed through application and interview.
- d) At least two and not more than three members who are students at the institution appointed by one of the following means:
 - Nomination and election by their fellow students or
 - Nominated and elected by the Student Union or
 - Selected by interview
- e) A person, who is not for the time being enrolled as a student at the institution, shall nevertheless be treated as a student during any period of authorised absence from the institution for study, travel or for carrying out the duties of any office held by that person in the institution's students' union.

- f) Where the Corporation has decided or decides that there is to be one staff member; the member may be a member of the academic staff or the non-academic staff and shall be appointed by application and interview.
- g) Where the Corporation has decided or decides that there are to be two staff members one may be a member of academic staff and one may be a member of non-academic staff appointed by application and interview.
- h) Where the Corporation has decided that there are to be three staff members the Corporation may decide which of these are academic and non-academic staff. The appointments will be made by application and interview.
- i) The appointing authority, as set out in clause 5, will decide whether a person is eligible for nomination, election and appointment as a member of the Corporation.

3. Determination of membership numbers

- a) Subject to paragraph 3(b) and the transitional arrangements in clause 4, the number of members of the Corporation, and the number of members of each variable category shall be that decided by the Corporation in the most recent determination made under the previous Instrument of Government.
- b) The Corporation may at any time vary the determination referred to in paragraph (a) and any subsequent determination under this paragraph provided that:
 - i. the number of members of the Corporation shall not be less than 12 or more than twenty; and
 - ii. the numbers of members of each variable category shall be subject to the limit which applies to that category set out in clause 2;
 - iii. No determination under this clause shall terminate the appointment of any person who is already a member of the Corporation at the time when the determination is made.

4. Transitional arrangements

- a) Where, following the last determination under the previous Instrument of Government, the membership of the Corporation does not conform in number to that determination:
 - i. nothing in clauses 2 and 3 of this Instrument shall require the removal of members where the previous Instrument would not have required their removal; but
 - ii. the Corporation shall ensure that any new appointments are made so that its composition conforms to the determination as soon as possible.

5. Appointment of the members of the Corporation

- a) Subject to paragraph 5(b) the Corporation is the appointing authority in relation to the appointment of its members.
- b) The appointing authority may decline to appoint a person as staff or student member if:
 - i. it is satisfied that the person has been removed from office as a member of a further education corporation in the previous ten years; or
 - ii. the appointment of the person would contravene any rule or bye-law made under article 23 of the Articles of Government concerning the number of terms of office which a person may serve, provided that such rules or bye-laws make the same provision for each category of members appointed by the appointing authority; or

iii. the person is ineligible to be a member of the corporation because of clause 8.

- c) Where the office of any member becomes vacant the appointing authority shall as soon as practicable take all necessary steps to appoint a new member to fill the vacancy.

6. Appointment of the Chair and Vice-Chair

- a) The members of the Corporation shall appoint a Chair and a Vice-Chair or Joint Vice Chairs from among themselves.
- b) Neither the CEO nor any staff or student member shall be eligible to be appointed as Chair or Vice-Chair(s) or to act as Chair in their absence.
- c) If both the Chair and the Vice-Chair(s) are absent from any meeting of the Corporation, the members present shall choose someone from among themselves to act as Chair for that meeting.
- d) The Chair and Vice-Chair(s) shall hold office for such period as the Corporation decides.
- e) The Chair or Vice-Chair(s) may resign from office at any time by giving notice in writing to the Clerk.
- f) If the Corporation is satisfied that the Chair is unfit or unable to carry out the functions of office, it may give written notice, removing the Chair from office and the office shall then be vacant.
- g) If the Corporation is satisfied that a Vice-Chair is unfit or unable to carry out the functions of office, it may give written notice, removing the Vice-Chair from office and the office shall then be vacant.
- h) At the last meeting before the end of the term of office of the Chair, or at the first meeting following the Chair's resignation or removal from office, the members shall appoint a replacement from among themselves.
- i) At the last meeting before the end of the term of office of the Vice-Chair(s), or at the first meeting following the Vice-Chair's resignation or removal from office, the members shall appoint a replacement from among themselves.
- j) At the end of their respective terms of office, the Chair and Vice-Chair(s) shall be eligible for reappointment.
- k) Paragraph 6(j) is subject to any rule or bye-law made by the Corporation under article 23 of the Articles of Government concerning the number of terms of office which a person may serve.

7. Appointment of the Clerk to the Corporation

- a) The Corporation shall appoint a person to serve as its Clerk, but the CEO may not be appointed as Clerk.
- b) In the temporary absence of the Clerk, the Corporation shall appoint a person to serve as a temporary Clerk, but the CEO may not be appointed as temporary Clerk.
- c) Any reference in this Instrument to the Clerk shall include a temporary Clerk appointed under paragraph 7(b).
- d) Subject to clause 14, the Clerk shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Corporation and any of its committees.
- e) The Clerk may also be a member of staff at the institution.

8. Persons who are ineligible to be members

The following persons are ineligible to be appointed as a member of, or from continuing to be a member of, the Corporation:

- a) Persons under the age of 18 years, except as a student member.
- b) The Clerk.
- c) A person who is a member of staff of the institution, except as a staff member or in the capacity of CEO
- d) Paragraph 8(c) does not apply to a student who is employed by the Corporation in connection with the student's role as an officer of a students' union
- e) A person who has been adjudged bankrupt or who is the subject of a bankruptcy restrictions order, an interim bankruptcy restrictions order or a bankruptcy restrictions undertaking within the meaning of the Insolvency Act 1986, or a person who has made a composition or arrangement with creditors, including an individual voluntary arrangement, however that disqualification will cease.
 - i. on that person's discharge from bankruptcy, unless the bankruptcy order has before then been annulled; or
 - ii. if the bankruptcy order is annulled, at the date of that annulment; or
 - iii. if the bankruptcy restrictions order is rescinded as a result of an application under section 375 of the Insolvency Act 1986, on the date so ordered by the court; or
 - iv. if the interim bankruptcy restrictions order is discharged by the court, on the date of that discharge; or
 - v. if the bankruptcy restrictions undertaking is annulled, at the date of that annulment.
- f) Where a person is disqualified by reason of having made a composition or arrangement with creditors, including an individual voluntary arrangement, and then pays the debts in full, the disqualification shall cease on the date on which the payment is completed and in any other case it shall cease on the expiration of three years from the date on which the terms of the deed of composition, arrangement or individual voluntary arrangement are fulfilled.
- g) If:
 - i. within the previous five years a person has been convicted, whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, of any offence and has received a sentence of imprisonment, whether suspended or not, for a period of three months or more, without the option of a fine; or
 - ii. within the previous twenty years a person has been convicted as set out in sub-paragraph 8(g)i and has received a sentence of imprisonment, whether suspended or not, for a period of more than two and a half years; or

- iii. a person has at any time been convicted as set out in sub-paragraph 8(g)i and has received a sentence of imprisonment, whether suspended or not, of more than five years
- h) For the purpose of this clause 8 there shall be disregarded any conviction by or before a court outside the United Kingdom for an offence in respect of conduct which, if it had taken place in the United Kingdom, would not have constituted an offence under the law then in force anywhere in the United Kingdom.
 - i. Any person who has been unable to satisfactorily complete a Disclosure and Barring Service check, where this is required by the College and/or by law.
 - ii. Any person who is ineligible to be appointed a trustee in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 (as amended from time to time) or a director in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 may not be a member.
 - iii. Upon a member of the Corporation becoming disqualified from continuing to hold office under paragraphs 8(e) or 8(f), the member shall immediately give notice of that fact to the Clerk.

9. The term of office of a member

- a) A member of the Corporation shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of the appointment, but the length of the term of office shall not exceed four years.
- b) Members retiring at the end of their term of office shall be eligible for reappointment, and clause 5 shall apply to the reappointment of a member as it does to the appointment of any member.
- c) Paragraph 9(b) is subject to any rule or bye-law made by the Corporation under article 23 of the Articles of Government concerning the number of terms of office which a person may serve.

10. Termination of membership

- a) A member may resign from office at any time by giving notice in writing to the Clerk
- b) If at any time the Corporation is satisfied that any member:
 - i. is unfit or unable to discharge the functions of a member or that it is not in the best interests of the Corporation for the member to continue to hold office; or
 - ii. has been absent from meetings of the Corporation for a period longer than six consecutive months without the permission of the Corporation, the Corporation may by notice in writing to that member remove the member from office and the office shall then be vacant.
- c) Any person who is a member of the Corporation by virtue of being a member of the staff at the institution, including the CEO, shall cease to hold office upon ceasing to be a member of the staff and the office shall then be vacant.
- d) A student member shall cease to hold office:
 - i. at the end of the student's final academic year, or at such other time in the year after ceasing to be a student as the Corporation may decide;
 - ii. if expelled from the institution,
 and the office shall then be vacant.

11. Members not to hold interests in matters relating to the institution

- a) A member to whom paragraph b) applies shall:
 - i. disclose to the Corporation the nature and extent of the interest; and

- ii. if present at a meeting of the Corporation, or of any of its committees, at which such supply, contract or other matter as is mentioned in paragraph (b) is to be considered, not take part in the consideration or vote on any question with respect to it and not be counted in the quorum present at the meeting in relation to a resolution on which that member is not entitled to vote; and
 - iii. withdraw, if present at a meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which such supply, contract or other matter as is mentioned in paragraph(b) is to be considered, where required to do so by a majority of the members of the Corporation or committee present at the meeting.
- b) This paragraph applies to a member who has any financial interest in:
- i. the supply of work to the institution, or the supply of goods for the purposes of the institution;
 - ii. any contract or proposed contract concerning the institution; or
 - iii. any other matter relating to the institution; or
 - iv. any other interest of a type specified by the Corporation in any matter relating to the institution.
- c) This clause shall not prevent the members considering and voting upon proposals for the Corporation to insure them against liabilities incurred by them arising out of their office or the Corporation obtaining such insurance and paying the premium.
- d) Where the matter under consideration by the Corporation or any of its committees relates to the pay and conditions of all staff, or all staff in a particular class, a staff member:
- i. need not disclose a financial interest; and
 - ii. may take part in the consideration of the matter, vote on any question with respect to it and count towards the quorum present at that meeting, provided that in so doing, the staff member acts in the best interests of the Corporation as a whole and does not seek to represent the interests of any other person or body; but
 - iii. shall withdraw from the meeting if the matter is under negotiation with staff and the staff member is representing any of the staff concerned in those negotiations.
- e) The Clerk shall maintain a register of the interests of the members which have been disclosed and the register shall be made available during normal office hours at the institution to any person wishing to inspect it. Completion of Declarations of Interest may be done by use of an electronic signature and shall be filed with the accompanying senders' correspondence.

12. Meetings

- a) The Corporation shall meet at least once in every term, and shall hold such other meetings as may be necessary.
- b) Subject to paragraphs 12(d) and 13(e) and to clause 13(d), all meetings shall be called by the Clerk, who shall, at least seven calendar days before the date of the meeting, send to the members of the Corporation written or electronic notice of the meeting and a copy of the proposed agenda.
- c) If it is proposed to consider at any meeting the remuneration, conditions of service, conduct, suspension, dismissal or retirement of the Clerk, the Chair shall, at least seven calendar days before the date of the meeting, send to the members a copy of the agenda item concerned, together with any relevant papers.

- d) A meeting of the Corporation, called a “special meeting”, may be called at any time by the Chair or at the request in writing of any five members.
- e) Where the Chair, or in the Chair’s absence the Vice-Chair, decides that there are matters requiring urgent consideration, the notice convening the special meeting and a copy of the proposed agenda may be given within less than seven calendar days.
- f) Every member shall act in the best interests of the Corporation and shall not be bound to speak or vote by mandates given by any other body or person.
- g) A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority of the Members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a meeting shall be effective provided that:
 - i. a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible member;
 - ii. a simple majority of the Members have signified agreement to the resolution by either signing the written resolution or by confirming agreement by email; and
 - iii. it is contained in a document or email authenticated by the Clerk which has been received at the address specified by the College for the receipt of documents within the period of 7 days beginning with the circulation date.
 - iv. A resolution in writing may comprise several hard copies or emails to which one or more members have signified their agreement.
 - v. A written resolution will lapse if it is not passed before the end of the period of 7 days beginning with the circulation date.
 - vi. For the purposes of clause 12 (c) “circulation date” is the day on which copies of the written resolution are sent or submitted to members or, if copies are sent or submitted on different days, to the first of those days.

13. Quorum

- a) Meetings of the Corporation shall be quorate if the number of members present is at least 40% of the total number of appointed members, determined according to clause 3.
- b) If the number of members present for a meeting of the Corporation does not constitute a quorum, the meeting shall not be held.
- c) If during a meeting of the Corporation there ceases to be a quorum, the meeting shall be terminated at once.
- d) If a meeting cannot be held or cannot continue for lack of a quorum, the Chair may call a special meeting as soon as it is convenient.

14. Proceedings of meetings

- a) Every question to be decided at a meeting of the Corporation shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast by members present and entitled to vote on the question.
- b) Where, at a meeting of the Corporation, there is an equal division of votes on a question to be decided, the Chair of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- c) A member may not vote by proxy or by way of postal vote.
- d) No resolution of the members may be rescinded or varied at a subsequent meeting unless consideration of the rescission or variation is a specific item of business on the agenda for that meeting.
- e) Except as provided by procedures made pursuant to article 16 of the Articles of Government, a member of the Corporation who is a member of staff at the institution, including the CEO, shall withdraw:
 - i. from that part of any meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which staff matters relating solely to that member of the staff, as distinct from staff matters relating to all members of staff or all members of staff in a particular class, are to be considered;

- ii. from that part of any meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which that member's reappointment or the appointment of that member's successor is to be considered;
 - iii. from that part of any meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which the matter under consideration concerns the pay or conditions of service of all members of staff, or all members of staff in a particular class, where the member of staff is acting as a representative (whether or not on behalf of a recognised trade union) of all members of staff or the class of staff (as the case may be); and
 - iv. if so required by a resolution of the other members present, from that part of any meeting of the Corporation or any of its committees, at which staff matters relating to any member of staff holding a post senior to that members are to be considered, except those relating to the pay and conditions of all staff or all staff in a particular class.
- f) A CEO who has chosen not to be a member of the Corporation shall still be entitled to attend and speak, or otherwise communicate, at all meetings of the Corporation and any of its committees, except that the CEO shall withdraw in any case where the CEO would be required to withdraw under paragraph 14(e).
- g) Except as provided by rules made under article 18(c) of the Articles of Government relating to appeals and representations by students in disciplinary cases, a student member shall withdraw from that part of any meeting of the Corporation or any of its committees, at which a student's conduct, suspension or expulsion is to be considered.
- h) In any case where the Corporation, or any of its committees, is to discuss staff matters relating to a member or prospective member of staff at the institution, a student member shall:
 - i. take no part in the consideration or discussion of that matter and not vote on any question with respect to it; and
 - ii. where required to do so by a majority of the members, other than student members, of the Corporation or committee present at the meeting, withdraw from the meeting.

The Clerk:

- i. shall withdraw from that part of any meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which the Clerk's remuneration, conditions of service, conduct, suspension, dismissal or retirement in the capacity of Clerk are to be considered; and
 - ii. where the Clerk is a member of staff at the institution, the Clerk shall withdraw in any case where a member of the Corporation is required to withdraw under paragraph 14(e).
- i) If the Clerk withdraws from a meeting, or part of a meeting, of the Corporation under paragraph 14(i), the Corporation shall appoint a person from among themselves to act as Clerk during this absence.

15. Minutes

- a) Written minutes of every meeting of the Corporation shall be prepared, and, subject to paragraph b), at every meeting of the Corporation the minutes of the last meeting shall be taken as an agenda item.
- b) Paragraph a) shall not require the minutes of the last meeting to be taken as an agenda item at a special meeting, but where they are not taken, they shall be taken as an agenda item at the next meeting which is not a special meeting.

- c) Where minutes of a meeting are taken as an agenda item and agreed to be accurate, those minutes shall be signed as a true record by the Chair of the meeting.
- d) Separate minutes shall be taken of those parts of meetings from which staff members, the CEO, student members or the Clerk have withdrawn from a meeting in accordance with clauses above and such persons may not be entitled to see the minutes of that part of the meeting or any papers relating to it.

16. Public access to meetings

- a) The Corporation shall decide any question as to whether a person should be allowed to attend any of its meetings where that person is not a member, the Clerk or the CEO and in making its decision, it shall give consideration to clause 17(b).

17. Publication of minutes and papers

- a) Subject to paragraph b), the Corporation shall ensure that a copy of—
 - the agenda for every meeting of the Corporation;
 - the minutes of every such meeting, if they have been approved by the Chair of the meeting;
 - the signed minutes of every such meeting; and
 - any report, document or other paper considered at any such meeting, shall as soon as possible be made available during normal office hours at the institution to any person wishing to inspect them.

- b) There shall be excluded from any item made available for inspection any material relating to:
 - a named person employed at or proposed to be employed at the institution;
 - a named student at, or candidate for admission to, the institution;
 - the Clerk; or
 - any matter which, by reason of its nature, the Corporation is satisfied should be dealt with on a confidential basis.
- c) The Corporation shall ensure that a copy of the signed minutes of every meeting of the Corporation, under paragraph 17(a), shall be placed on the institution's website, and shall, despite any rules the Corporation may make regarding the archiving of such material, remain on its website for a minimum period of 12 months.
- d) The Corporation shall review regularly all material excluded from inspection under paragraph 17.2 and make any such material available for inspection where it is satisfied that the reason for dealing with the matter on a confidential basis no longer applies, or where it considers that the public interest in disclosure outweighs that reason.

18. Copies of the Instrument of Government

- a) A copy of this Instrument shall be published on the Group's website and be given free of charge to every member of the Corporation and at a charge not exceeding the cost of copying or free of charge to any other person who so requests a copy, and shall be available for inspection at the institution upon request, during normal office hours, to every member of staff and every student.

19. Change of name of the Corporation

- a) The Corporation may change its name with the approval of the Department for Education.

20. Application of the seal

- a) The application of the seal of the Corporation shall be authenticated by the signature of either the Chair or of some other member authorised either generally or specially by the Corporation to act for that purpose; and the signature of any other member.

21. Payment to members

- a) The Corporation may pay to its members such travelling, subsistence or reasonable expenses as it decides, but shall not without the written approval of the Charity Commission, make any payments which remunerate the members for their services as members.

SCHEDULE 2

Articles of Government

1. Interpretation of the terms used

In these Articles of Government:

- b) any reference to the CEO shall include a person acting as CEO;
- c) "the Articles" means these Articles of Government;
- d) "Chair" and "Vice-Chair" mean respectively the Chair and Vice-Chair(s) of the Corporation appointed under clause 6 of the Instrument of Government;
- e) "the Clerk" has the same meaning as in the Instrument of Government;
- f) "the Corporation" has the same meaning as in the Instrument of Government;
- g) "the Department for Education" has the same meaning as in the Instrument of Government.
- h) "staff member" and "student member" have the same meanings as in the Instrument of Government;
- i) "the Secretary of State" means the Department for Education;
- j) "senior post" means the post of CEO and such other senior posts as the Corporation may decide for the purposes of these Articles;
- k) "the staff" means all the staff who have a contract of employment with the institution; "the students' union" has the same meaning as in the Instrument of Government.

2. Conduct of the institution

- a) The institution shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Instrument of Government, these Articles, any rules or bye-laws made under these Articles and any trust deed regulating the institution.

3. Responsibilities of the Corporation, the CEO and the Clerk

The Corporation shall be responsible for the following functions:

- a) the determination and periodic review of the educational character and mission of the institution and the oversight of its activities;
- b) publishing arrangements for obtaining the views of staff and students on the determination and periodic review of the educational character and mission of the institution and the oversight of its activities;
- c) approving the quality strategy of the institution;
- d) the effective and efficient use of resources, the solvency of the institution, any subsidiary companies and the Corporation and safeguarding their assets;
- e) approving annual estimates of income and expenditure;
- f) the appointment, grading, suspension, dismissal and determination of the pay and conditions of service of the holders of senior posts and the Clerk, including, where the Clerk is, or is to be appointed as, a member of staff, the Clerk's appointment, grading, suspension, dismissal and determination of pay in the capacity of a member of staff; and
- g) setting a framework for the pay and conditions of service of all other staff.

Subject to the responsibilities of the Corporation, the Chief Executive of the institution shall be responsible for the following functions:

- a) making proposals to the Corporation about the educational character and mission of the institution and implementing the decisions of the Corporation;
- b) the determination of the institution's academic and other activities;

- c) preparing annual estimates of income and expenditure for consideration and approval by the Corporation, and the management of budget and resources within the estimates approved by the Corporation;
- d) the organisation, direction and management of the institution and leadership of the staff;
- e) the appointment, assignment, grading, appraisal, suspension, dismissal and determination, within the framework set by the Corporation, of the pay and conditions of service of staff, other than the holders of senior posts or the Clerk, where the Clerk is also a member of the staff; and
- f) maintaining student discipline and, within the rules and procedures provided for within these Articles, suspending or expelling students on disciplinary grounds or expelling students for academic reasons.

The Clerk shall be responsible for the following functions:

- a) advising the Corporation with regard to the operation of its powers;
- b) advising the Corporation with regard to procedural matters;
- c) advising the Corporation with regard to the conduct of its business; and
- d) advising the Corporation with regard to matters of governance practice.

4. The establishment of committees and delegation of functions generally

- a) The Corporation may establish committees for any purpose or function, other than those assigned in these Articles to the CEO or Clerk and may delegate powers to such committees; the Chair, or in the Chair's absence, the Vice-Chair; or the CEO.
- b) The number of members of a committee and the terms on which they are to hold and to vacate office, shall be decided by the Corporation. The Chair may appoint co-optees to committees in the circumstances set out in the Corporation's Standing Orders.
- c) The Corporation may also establish committees under collaboration arrangements made with other further education institutions or maintained schools (or with both), and such joint committees shall be subject to any regulations made under section 166 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 governing such arrangements.

5. The Search Committee

- a) The Corporation shall establish a committee, to be known as the "search committee".
- b) The Search Committee will advise on the appointment of members (other than the election of student members); and such other matters relating to membership and appointments as the Corporation may ask it to.
- c) The Corporation shall not appoint any person as a member (other than as student member) without first consulting and considering the advice of the search committee.
- d) The Corporation may make rules specifying the way in which the search committee is to be conducted. A copy of these rules, together with the search committee's terms of reference and its advice to the Corporation, other than any advice which the Corporation is satisfied should be dealt with on a confidential basis, shall be published on the institution's website and shall be made available for inspection at the institution by any person during normal office hours.
- e) The Corporation shall review regularly all material excluded from inspection under paragraph 5(c) and shall make any such material available for inspection where it is satisfied that the reason for dealing with the matter on a confidential basis no longer applies, or where it considers that the public interest in disclosure outweighs that reason.

6. The Audit Committee

- a) The Corporation shall establish a committee, to be known as the “audit committee”, to advise on matters relating to the Corporation’s audit arrangements and systems of internal control.
- b) The audit committee shall consist of at least three persons and may not include members of staff at the institution, and shall operate in accordance with any requirements of the relevant Department for Education guidance.

7. Composition of committees

- a) Any committee established by the Corporation, other than the committee referred to in article 10, may include persons who are not members of the Corporation.

8. Access to committees by non-members and publication of minutes

- a) The Corporation shall ensure that a written statement of its policy regarding attendance at committee meetings by persons who are not committee members; and the minutes of committee meetings, if they have been approved by the Chair of the meeting, are published on the institution’s website and made available for inspection at the institution by any person, during normal office hours.

9. Delegable and non-delegable functions

The Corporation shall not delegate the following functions:

- a) the determination of the educational character and mission of the institution;
- b) the approval of the annual estimates of income and expenditure;
- c) the responsibility for ensuring the solvency of the institution and the Corporation and for safeguarding their assets;
- d) the appointment of the CEO or holder of a senior post;
- e) the appointment of the Clerk, (including, where the Clerk is, or is to be, appointed as a member of staff the Clerk’s appointment in the capacity of a member of staff); and
- f) the modification or revocation of these Articles.

10. Delegable and non-delegable functions

The Corporation may not delegate:

- a) the consideration of the case for dismissal of a holder of a senior post or the Clerk; and
