- 1.2 To provide a framework for the way complaints are processed and resolved, according to agreed procedures.
- 1.3 To ensure the accompanying processes/procedures are reviewed/amended annually.
- 1.4 To ensure the accompanying processes/procedures comply with current legislation.
- 1.5 To eliminate, as far as possible, the factors arising from complaints, which have resolved by the College, so that similar complaints do not arise subsequently.

 2. The Head of the Chief Executive Officer's Secretariat Team or the Personal Assistant to the Principal (CNWL) will:
 - either, ask the complainant to raise the complaint directly with the relevant Head of Faculty/Head of Service/Director if they consider it to be one which should be investigated by the faculty/service area in the first instance.

In this case a reference number will be allocated to the complaint.

N.B. In this case, if they have not already submitted the complaint in writing, the complainant must:

- either write to the Head of the Chief Executive Officer's Secretariat Team or the Personal Assistant to the Principal (CNWL); or complete the College's Customer Complaint Form (Appendix 6) and send it to the Head of the Chief Executive Officer's Secretariat Team or the Personal Assistant to the Principal (CNWL), outlining:

- in detail the nature of their complaint and the response from the faculty/service are;
 - why they are not satisfied with the faculty/service area response.
- or, if the Head of the Chief Executive Officer's Secretariat Team or the Personal Assistant to the Principal (CNWL) is unclear if a complaint is one which should be considered as an 'informal' complaint, then they will consult the relevant manager, who will decide on the status of the complaint, i.e. if it is an informal or formal complaint. Whichever is the case, the Head of the Chief Executive Officer's Secretariat Team or the Personal Assistant to the Principal (CNWL) will contact the complainant, informing the complainant of the process which will be followed.
- or, if the complaint is made via the telephone/in person and the Head of the Principal's Secretariat Team or the Personal Assistant to the Principal (CNWL) considers the complaint to be one which should be considered as a formal complaint, the Head of the Chief Executive Officer's Secretariat Team (CWC) or the Personal Assistant to the Principal (CNWL) will ask the complainant to submit the complaint in writing.

- ii. Except in exceptional circumstances, a complaint will not be considered if it is made anonymously.
- iii. In the case of a complaint against a member of staff, and depending on the seriousness of the complaint, i.e. the complaint falls under other College policies, e.g. 'Grievance Policy', 'Disciplinary Staff Policy', etc., the complaint may be referred directly to Human Resources for consideration. In this case, the the senior managers responsible for ensuring formal complaints to the CEO are investigated, may not be informed/consulted. In this case, the complainant will be contacted in writing by Human Resources.

1. Once a formal written complaint is received:
 - it is acknowledged in writing by the Head of the Chief Executive Officer's Secretariat Team or the Personal Assistant to the Principal (CNWL) within three working days;
 - the complainant is told the name of the member of staff dealing with the complaint. This is normally one of the College's managers responsible for overseeing complaints
2. The complainant will be contacted by the relevant manager responsible for overseeing complaints within 5 working days of the complaint being received by them, who will summarise the complaint and will give an indicative date by which the complainant will receive a response, i.e. up to 20 working days from the date they first received the complaint.
